"What counts is not the number of hours you put in, but how much you put in the hours." Anonymous.

While looking for a subject to cover in this week's article, I found a piece that was put in the Maryland Cooperative Extension Service monthly Specialist's Notes by Dr. Billie Frazier, Human Development Specialist, on the topic of giving time to children. I feel that it contains some very valuable thoughts for parents. Following is the article.

"As parents, we must be ready to allow our children to make mistakes. We can't feel guilt about everything a son or daughter does that does not reflect well upon us. If something went wrong or isn't going well now, it's not too late to change it. We can't expect children to be perfect. Each child is an individual and each is a little different in his or her own way.

"But this doesn't mean that we can't speak up. Quite to the contrary. We must be ready to tell a growing child when we think he/she is wrong. That's one of the reasons children have parents. Simply speak to him/her as you would want to be spoken to, but before speaking up, make certain you know what it is you're talking about. In other words, listen first. Find out what the other side has to say.

"A good rule to remember when dealing with children is - we were made with two ears and one mouth! And so were they. But a young person will learn to listen faster and better if we listen to them first. If children sense that listening is important, if they see us doing it, then they probably will follow our example.

"We must set the stage. We must give them the opportunity to talk. And that means a child must be given some time to be alone with us. They also must sense an air of confidentiality. What is told us in confidence must be kept in confidence.

"Someone once said that there are many 'weekend' or 'checkbook' fathers and mothers. Too often, because of the busy routine, we put off spending time with the child. We wait until the child gets to an 'interesting age' only to find that when the parent is ready, the child has not time. One unhappy father reflected upon his life and said, 'I was always like a gas station attendant to my kids. I let them drive in, I filled up their empty tanks, made repairs, wiped their windshields, and then sent them off!'

"A child who makes mistakes needs a parent to reassure him or her. The child often needs help in seeing why something didn't work.

"If we tend to expect perfection, then the child will never feel as though we can be pleased. There are many situations in life that can be met with more than one answer or in more than one way. We adults must be willing to admit that our way may not be the only way and that the child's way may, in fact, work just as well.

"One parent remarked that this was a hard lesson to learn. He agreed that in order to admit that the child's solution to a problem was just as good as his, he had to begin by giving the child more time. It takes time to find out from the child his reasons.

"It is so easy to say, 'I've got to give him/her more of my time,' but so hard to do in practice."

Many of the pre-mixed seasonings, etc. that we buy can be easily made at home at a cheaper price. This recipe for Seasoned Salt is an example of this. This home mix costs about 6.6 cents per ounce to make while the prepared mix costs about 11.9 cents per ounce. Quite a savings, don't you think?

SEASONED SALT

4 tablespoons salt
1 teaspoon paprika
2 teaspoons onion powder
¾ teaspoon ground celery seed
¼ teaspoon garlic powder

Mix all ingredients well and store in a tightly covered container. Makes 2.4 ounces.

Oakland Man Gets 18-Month Term

An Oakland man was given an 18-month jail term having pleaded guilty of resisting arrest. Judge Fred A. Thayer passed the sentence at a trial last Tuesday.

Karl Wilson, Poplar Street, Oakland, pleaded guilty of resisting arrest in Oakland last July. Wilson was sentenced to the Commissioner of Correction for 18 months, to be served in the Allegany County jail. He is to have work release if available. Two other charges against Wilson were dismissed, trespassing and disorderly conduct.

Joyce Levon Brown, 38, E. Oak Street, Oakland, pleaded guilty of bigamy, also at a trial last Tuesday. She was married to a second man while still married to the first. A sentence of one year was suspended without probation.

MULTIPLE-MIRROR TELESCOPE

Since it is not feasible to make very large telescopes with one very large mirror, a method has been found to use many smaller mirrors and obtain the same advantages of light gathering. The very large telescope may be constructed of as many as 2000 small mirrors. These mirrors will be coordinated and focused to the same spot and function as a unit. This could not be possible without computers and the new servo-motor technology which will continually adjust each segment of the very large mirror. The technology for a very large mirror is being used, on a small scale, with the 176-inch multiple-mirror telescope on Mt. Hopkins, Arizona.

MOON

New Moon Phase will occur on Tuesday at 3:06 p.m. This week the moon is waning. Moonset will be at 3:11 p.m. today. By Tuesday moonset will be at 5:31 p.m.

VISIBLE PLANETS

Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn are the most easily seen planets this week. Mars, among the stars of Libra, is low in the southwest at sunset. Jupiter rises about an hour before midnight as do the stars of Cancer. Rising about two hours after midnight with the stars of Leo, Saturn is well up in the east at sunrise.

DAYLIGHT DECREASES

There will be 14 minutes less daylight next Tuesday. Sunrise was at 7:37 this morning. Sunset will be at 6:25 p.m. At the end of the week the sun will rise at 6:44 a.m. Ten hours 34 minutes later, it will set at 5:18 p.m. Sunday is the first day, this season, of Eastern Standard Time. Clocks should be set back one hour on Saturday to change from Eastern Daylight Time to Eastern Standard Time.

Spotlighting Brings Heavy Fine To One

A heavy fine was levied by Judge Lewis R. Jones in District Court for spotlighting as noted among the Natural Resource violations, Monday.

Clarence William Collins, Deer Park, pleaded not guilty of casting rays of light on fields and woods with firearms in possession. He was found guilty and fined $200.

Donald Hilligartner, Pittsburgh, pleaded not guilty of operating a motor boat in a reckless or negligent manner so as to endanger the life, limb or property of another person. He was found guilty and fined $55.

Two forfeited collateral in the amount of $15 for having none or insufficient life saving devices on board a boat: Vernon F. Kuehn, Baltimore, and Linda C. Booth, Shaker Heights, Ohio.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. James SanJulian, 100 John Drive, Oakland, announce the birth of a son, Patrick Ryan, October 4 in the United Hospital Center, Clarksburg, W. Va. This is the couple's second son.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert V. McCartney, Clarksburg, are the maternal grandparents. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Julio SanJulian, Clarksburg.

Thirteen More Killed On Roads

Thirteen persons lost their lives on Maryland Highways according to the Weekly News Release compiled by 2nd Lt. M. I. Morgan of the Maryland State Police. Of the persons killed, two were drivers, seven were passengers and four were pedestrians.

Persons killed through October 22 total 561, compared to 532 for the same period last year.

Almanac

Today is Wednesday, October 25, the 298th day of 1978 with 67 to follow.

The moon is between its last quarter and new phase.

The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mercury, Mars and Venus.

Those born on this date are under the sign of Scorpio.

American polar explorer Richard Evelyn Byrd was born October 25, 1888. This is Australian singer Helen Reddy's 36th birthday.

On this day in history:

In 1854, in the "Charge of the Light Brigade," some 670 British cavalrymen fighting in the Crimean War attacked a heavily fortified Russian position and were wiped out.

In 1971, the United Nations admitted Communist China to membership and ousted Nationalist China.

In 1973, President Nixon, under increasingly heavy fire for the Watergate cover-up, attacked the American news media for what he called "hysterical, vicious" reporting.

In 1975, roaming gangs of gunmen spread terror and death in wide sections of Beirut, Lebanon, as warring increased between right-wing Christian and left-wing Moslem militias.

A thought for the day:

American writer Henry David Thoreau said, "It takes two to speak the truth — one to speak and another to hear."

The Oakland Chapter of the Future Farmers of America has been rated superior for 1978. Mr. David Miller, Maryland Association FFA Executive Secretary, sent a letter to the chapter congratulating them on their outstanding achievements. They were rated on their programs of activities, school and community service, development of leadership skills, and participation in Regional, State, and National FFA activities.

Activity periods met Wednesday, October 18, for the first time this year. They will be held regularly.

Future Business Leaders of America held their initiation dinner, October 17, in the Foods Room. The dinner and initiation of new members lasted from 12:00 to 2:00 p.m. Karen Biser, last year's treasurer, and Teresa Sweitzer, last year's secretary, attended the dinner.

Student Council met Tuesday, October 17. Their agenda included the dance policy, and collecting for UNICEF. They will be collecting during the National UNICEF DAY/halloween campaign. The Council also discussed the policy governing the one dance a month rule which was enacted. The judges for the Homecoming Parade will be positioned in front of the First National Bank. The parade will be held Friday at 6:00 p.m. before the game. The planned parade route is down Second Street, turn onto Alder Street, and up Third Street to the Custard Stand.

Girls Athletic Association will sponsor the Homecoming Dance, Saturday night from 8:00 till 11:00 p.m. Photographs and Memories is the theme for the dance, whose music will be supplied by the band, "Survivor." All Southern Alumni are invited but they will have to sign up previous to the dance.

Southern Cheerleaders planned a week of activities to boost the spirit for Homecoming. Spirit was shown Monday when students wore crazy hats, socks, and tee-shirts. Seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen started decorating the halls for a cash prize. Stamp Keyser Day, Mourn Day, and Hang Keyser Day, and Red and White Day were held throughout the week for students to show their spirit. The Scavenger Hunt starts at 6:30, Thursday. Everyone involved should meet in front of the school. A bonfire will be held after the Scavenger Hunt. The Spirit Stick will be hidden Friday for Red and White day. The finder will be given a free pass to that night's game. A Pep Assembly will be held, Friday afternoon and mums will be handed out afterwards. The Homecoming game will start at 8:00 p.m., when the Rams will challenge the Keyser Tornadoes. The announcement of the Homecoming Queen and her court will be made at half-time.
